GM's final address to BH3 (AGM - BH3 Run 1927, 7 June 2014)

Some years ago the following comments were noted by an Ex GM:

'I did not organize a Hash Ball - but at least nobody died'.

I am extremely happy that during my GM-ship (2013/2014 period):

- We did not have to add anybody leaving us but I would like to give toast to all departed BH3 friends.
- And we had a hash ball (which, thanks to various support in different ways from some hashers) did not require any of the general Hash funds. Thanks goes to: Noah, Bob, KC, VS, Tickler, Paul.

BH3 is special: So when I was asked to be GM I had no ambition to 'carry the flag' but saw it purely under one point:

BH3 has been good to me (since I joined in '96) and had given me a lot - it was now time to contribute and pay my dues.'

In the last 12 months I realized that: In whatever way you try it's almost impossible to make everybody happy all the time.

I appreciated the constructive comments received and I saw, and was thankful when people put in the 'extra effort'. These are the guys who make BH3 special!!

I would like to encourage everybody to think about how he can contribute (everybody within his means) not only do the minimum - this also refers to future committee jobs. No doubt, there are some very valid reasons, but (so it appears to me) there are also too many 'easy reasons' why things can't be done.

Numbers:

Financially: Mid-year we increased quarterly subs from 2000 to 2300 TBH and managed to kept a balanced account. After having received 28,200THB we are passing on more than 30,000THB to the next Committee.

That a 60 year old GM is still one of the 'front runners' shows that the average age is not getting less. I am therefore very happy and proud that we had:

18 New boots - The good thing is some also are still running with us (and not only take the steel and never come back) -but all of them paid 500THB for the Steel!

Jointmaster's Report - Spinning Dwarf

Bangkok's finest have circled the sun once again and another hash year is complete. Phrapadaeng was the location of the first run of the Bushman Regime, hared by outgoing GM 4x2 with help from Bruised Willy, and was also its last. Bushman's reign started with him mysteriously disappearing after the hash circle and skipping the hash meal. This un-GM-like behaviour was soon rectified and nary an On On On was missed.

Noriega and Virginia Slim provided us with some thrills when ten Bangkok Hashers boarded a small six-row "long tail" powered by a Toyota car engine on a canal, located somewhere in Minburi. We were clocked with a GPS at hurtling down the canal at 72 km/hr.

It was good to see some of us still got stamina and mojo, with Manboobs and Bushman partying until 4AM at Tinker's Nong Khai Outstation. And just a reminder ... "What happens on an outstation stays on the outstation".

The Hash Ball at the British Club, thanks to the efforts of our Grand Master, was a resounding success with good times had by all. And our hares came through with another excellent year of trails. Kudos to the organizers of the four excellent outstations and to those that did four or more recces in unfamiliar territory trying to get the trail just right.

On on,
Spinning Dwarf

Jointmaster's Report - Anal Rape

Beleaguered hashmen can soon breathe a sigh of relief, as the Blitzhash is about to end. No longer will the BH3 troops look to the front where they would see the lone figure of the fleet footed Grand Master streaking away in the distance, charging headlong into the breach. After the reign of he who surely must be the fastest GM in BH3 history, the pace on trail can now drop back down to its customary sedate stroll.

Electrolyte!

Torrid pace setters.

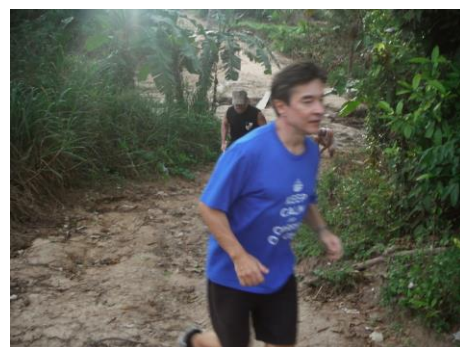

In spite of the torrid pace, what a great year it was, with some superb trails through all types of terrain - jungles, beach, city canyons, swamps, mountains. Past favorite run sites mixed with several new "virgin" areas provided a much appreciated variety. Several out station runs were a great way to spend time out in the less traveled parts of Thailand, and neighboring countries.

Some incredible milestone run totals were reached - the BH3 must have the most dedicated harriers in the world.

And in a very positive development, recruitment and retention were up this year, with a number of eager new volunteers ready to serve King and Queen and dew their dewty. No doubt, in many years some of these young fellows will be celebrating their 1000+ run on the BH3.

Onsec Report

Unfortunately, at press time the Onsec was indisposed. However it must be pointed out that most of the material in this report was compiled and prepared by him. You all have experienced a year of newsletters which by far set a new benchmark for the BH3.

Hash Cash Report

Hash Cash considered delegating this summary to one of his asses as he did with many of his other duties this year, but then decided that they have done enough already. Seriously, I have to give a big thanks to Khun Tiradej and Mike Rust for all of their help this year - their reliability, solid record keeping and careful stewardship of hash funds. This year (through 51 weeks) we have had 1,479 total runners (29 per week) - 1,368 member runs and 111 visitor runs. We had 18 (!) new boots and issued 18 mugs. Special congratulations to Khun Tiradej on 1,300 runs and Khun Senator on 1,100 (don't you guys have anything better to do on Saturday night!?). Depending on how much food and drink we consume at the AGM we should be passing on between 35,000 to 40,000 to the next committee. OnOn, Dave "Cherry Liquor" Kuipers

I'm sure I gave you the money... didn't I?

Hash Cash Ass Report

This was only my duty for some weeks. I only collected money, checked the names of who is running and who is a new boot, and sent a report to the Onsec and Hash-Cash. I am very happy if the cash on hand and my accounting is correct. Thank you Khun Dave and Khun Mike.

Tiradej, Porkfinder

Trailmaster Report

It's always a pleasure to be the Trailmaster for BH3. Unlike other unmentionable hashes there is never a shortage of good hares, never any whingeing about having to set a run, and never any embarrassing and frustrating last minute withdrawals.

BH3 hares lay them hard, lay them long, and go all the way.

Did I mention wet?

Come on Tony, you're never too old to set a run!

Well, to be honest there are a few short soft ones now and again, but variety is everything right?

As once stated by a former infamous BH3 GM "There is no such thing as a bad BH3 run, they are all good, its just that some are gooder than others". Or something like that.

With this I wholeheartedly agree, and note that its always great sport taking the piss out of the hares who are responsible for the not so gooder ones.

So for all the brilliant runs, and all the brilliant not so gooder load of crap runs, thank you Hares one and all.

It was great fun, and you made my job easy.

ONON! Bullit

Hash Flash Report

"Being Hash Flash give me this new amazing experience. I had to keep up with all the runners and try to capture all those fun moments. Getting to see all the members having a good time through the lens just made my day".

On On Nearest and Dearest

Practicing how to hold my camera!

Hash Sniff Report

Upon being appointed "Hash Sniff" my first duty was to appoint a Sniff Ass. My choice was Ambrose. Everyone chuckled at this nomination commenting that he could not find oil in Elvis Presley's hair, but my intelligence proved correct as my job was essentially over. Ambrose shows up for every run and he shows up early. So the paper was always spotted well before I arrived and the pack promptly guided on-out!

On On The Tickler

Hash Sniff Ass Report

As I was not intending to make a career as Hash Sniff Ass, I thought I might take it easy, but no, Hash Sniff gave me a starring role. GM insisted on calling me out. Driven by fear of not finding the trail in time, I had to arrive early.

Hares can make Sniff's life difficult - starting a run in the least obvious direction - hiding the first paper behind a post.

Finding paper in the countryside with options at 360°, and no clue as to where to start looking, I fell back on luck. The worst experience a sniff's life is returning to the start to find the pack have gone, which did happen. Fortunately volunteers stepped forward when sniffing got difficult. Thanks to Narest, Todd and KC for making my life less stressful.

Tickler's professional qualifications and experience clearly made him the right choice for Hash Sniff. When he showed up he made finding the start seem easy.

On On Ambrose

Hash Mugger Report

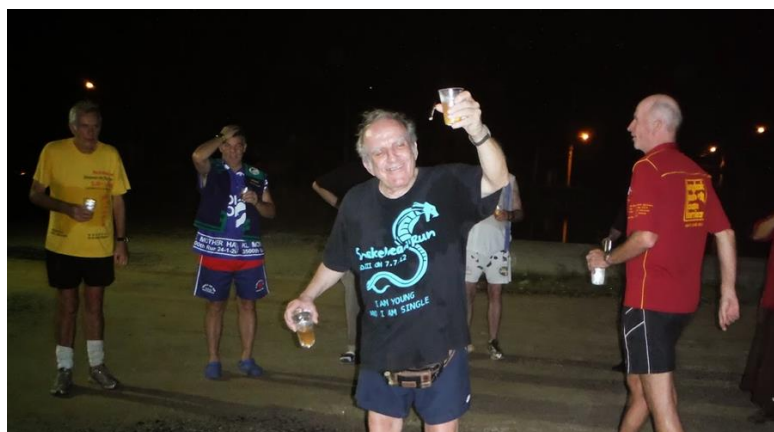

This has to be one of the most abused positions on the BH3 MISMANAGEMENT.

For some reason Hashers seem to think the MUGGER is a combination of On-Sec and Hash Historian since they frequently email me on either the size of their MUG (is this a sign of insecurity in their sex life) that they want to receive or some spurious claim of X hundred runs made "so where's my mug" in a very superior tone. Well the Mugger is simply a humble servant of the HASHerrr...well.... and does not keep records.

His major problem is getting in and out of the Mug Shop without being accosted by the lovely ladies who are still asking where Vinai is, the sex maniac that used to visit them many moons ago. Goodness knows what charms he brought to purchasing mugs but I don't seem to have the same effect.

But now to the MUGS that were awarded during the year and this is where Alzheimer's steps in. I therefore refer you to the statistics provide somewhere in this illustrious journal by Monsieur Le Pope, our Hash Historian.

ON ON The Mugger Sir Roderick 'The Bug' Turner

Haberdash Report

The objective I set when I took over the job last year was to distribute as many shirts to hashers as possible without making any a lot of money. I wish to see smart men wearing our shirts everywhere around the world to advertise BH3 and proud of being a part of this prestigious group. Also new members who joined during this regime would get a fuck free T-shirt to show to their wives/giks.

Therefore, I sold approximately 30 pieces shirts plus one cooler bag making a total of Baht 9,700 and emptied all stocks we had. The money is now with Hash Cash and I hope he is clean like me, not as corrupted as some Farangs who live in this country for too so long. Virginia Slim also donated 4 shirts left over from his special run, a good example for those who are rich and don't know how to do good deeds.

With my vision, I replenished the stock for future Haberdasher by producing 20 limited edition T-shirts, of course paid by the Hash because I am not rich yet. They are of top quality, great design and made of 100% Egyptian cotton in low high-class black colour. Future Haberdasher please fix an appropriate price.

I enjoy running with the Hash and will do anything I can for my wives friends. Please give this important job to someone who is not as good as me next year!

The Senator, Haberdash 2013-2014

Webmaster Report

Gentlemen. I see it as my sole aim to provide an uncluttered website for BH3 members and visitors, clear of all advertising and extraneous information with the following week's run advertised on the front page as early as the next day (Sunday) - if directions are promptly received the previous week. All other pertinent information can be found in one of the four sub-pages, including photographs of the previous week's run as soon as they are received. I do hope this is being achieved and I am always open to suggestions for improvement.

There is one question which could be usefully put to the incoming committee and that is, should we advertise transport assistance to visitors such as is laid out on the BMH3 website. Currently I only advertise email addresses of some of the committee and their telephone numbers. This aspect could possibly be improved on and as I have said, I am open to any suggestions that might improve the BH3 website in this respect or any other.

There are many more qualified web-techies than me around and if anyone on the BH3 would like a spell at running this important BH3 facility, I would be very happy to pass on my advice and the relevant technical information which guarantees us a reliable website with our reliable web provider in Chiang Mai.

After all, my dream has always been to be Hash Horn before my jogging skills disappear forever, however as in Dylan Thomas' play 'Under Milk Wood',
Nogood Boyo really wants to be a Good Boyo, but no one will let him!!

It is a pleasure to be on the BH3 committee, to help out in any way I possibly can.

On On, Lem Morgan, Nogood Boyo, Webmaster BH3

BH Hash Historian Report

'Twas the year nineteen hundred and ninety-nine

The GM made me an offer I could not decline

So for the past half score and five years

I've been collecting crap 'til it comes out my ears

Every week with frettin' brow

(It seems so easy now)

I'd decipher the write-up to see who was hare who was co and who fell off a log

And who got bit by a dog

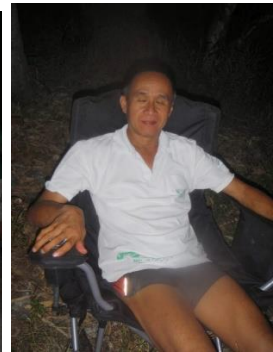

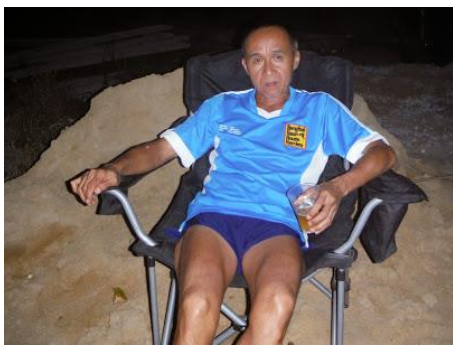

Methinks this is gettin' boring

I'll end here - Hash Historian

Selected Memories!!!!!!!!!!

It's a bird? A plane? Superman?

I know, I am just so damn good looking!

Those of us who dared!

Can't I get a little bit of privacy here?

My wife lets me come on Saturday's now!

I got the best seat at dinner tonight!

The boat trip back with the military guard.

Time for a beer.

Thais on trail!!

Wet feet!!!!!!

Traded to Chiang Mai; cost us 10000 baht.

Where does your GPS think we are?.

New hash hygiene standards!

So many old people....

Simulated running picture.

Bruce to TL, "Wanna hold hands?"

Don't your balls ever itch?

I could've given you some paper Mr. Hare!

Even Tickler can make it across here.

GM, there was paper over there I swear,

Stevie Blunder keeps up with Bog Diver.

Ambrose goes for a swim.

Don't mess with us!

Why, why am I here???

The unholy trinity.

Address your GM with respect, understand!!

I can get into the shit just as well as any man.

Let me tell you how it's supposed to be.

Really old hare team....

The Hangover crowd that made it out!

They only let a real stud carry the horn.

The pants are only part of the package.

You can do it Dripper!

Why is Disgusting using our area again?

On On to the BH3 2000th!!!!
