The BH3 Grand Master's Report

Peter Vandenhoecke
'Ladyboy'

Your GM for Life (GMFL) in 2020 – 2021.

What promised to be a brilliant year, my reign (noun: the period during which a sovereign rules – vive la republique) somehow started in minor. Appointed in absence (on 11.July.2021 – the Flemish national day - and about a month after I should have been anointed (ceremonially confer divine or holy office upon (a priest or monarch) by smearing or rubbing with oil; nominate or choose (someone) as successor to or leading candidate for a position). Was stuck in Belgium (family affair and COVID 19 restrictions are a great combination – I can recommend).

A repatriation flight and an ASQ in the Maple Hotel later, and I could “officially” start my reign as GMFL with the Bangkok Hash House harriers. (Look at the smile of relief!)

The 29th of August 2020 I made my first official appearance. Luckily Gringo, who appointed me, was wise enough to pick a few brilliant JM's that could stand in for me during my absence. (My gratitude to all 3 of them.)

And my tanks to the Hares who allegedly set glorious runs (Gringo – ex-GM; Cod Piece; Lurch; Capt. Eric; Tickler and Violin Man Chicken Liver) during my absence.

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Grand Master's Report continues 1

Virginia Slim welcomed me back with an outstation in Pranburi together with the Harriettes. They had something to celebrate, and we of course honoured them with our presence. A lovely weekend to be back in the LOS.

The 5th of August, my financial advisor (Hash Cash) Anacuntman to welcome me back with a brilliant run, on a by now infamous run site. I considered this my 'real' welcome back run.

I would like to use this moment to thank all the hares that made 20-21 such a great year. (The year that never ended.)

Without you, the Hash would not be what it is. So, Tambourine Man; Checkless; Moonlight; Khlong Dump; Love Canal; Taiping 1949; Quickdraw; Drunken Donut; Oversexed; Hash Hash; Bullit; Bugs; Village Idiot and Pussy Virus with a X-Mas run ... Thank you all very much for doing what you do so well: Haring!!! (This is not an exclusive thanks to the aforementioned exclusively, but to all who served in 20-21 under my reign.)

And then, there was the Ex-GM's lunch in the British Club on 18.Dec.2020. Always a moment to pause, have a few beers and enjoy the company of some esteemed men. The Ex-GM's who set the example of how to run the BH3.

To close down 2020 we still had Tiradej and Joostless remembering and setting runs.

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Grand Master's Report continues 2

We started the year 2021 with Slumdog, who had something special to celebrate. No good deed goes unpunished ... A brilliant Run, a brilliant Anniversary T-Shirt, not to mention a brilliant OnOnOn. La Vita e Bella!

Wee Jimmeah; Spinning Dwarf; Mr. or Mrs. Anonymous; Boob a Lube were the other January men.

February started off with Pink Panther; Ambrose (that was a Memorial Run); 4x2; Tickler; The Senator (Snake Run w. elegant mosquito proof long sleeve shirt); Krinkle Cut; Hema; Dembuster.

A quick note what Dambuster's run is concerned. A new area. A boat run. Quite a few people got lost in the dark. All in all ... one to remember!

Outstation in Chiang Dao.

Tinker in great form! Must say that I do not remember much of what happened after the run. I am all misty (or was it foggy) on what happened there. But I do remember it was a great run. Lots of beer with lots of great friends. Thanks Mr. T. for setting a great outstation. Hope you do it soon again.

The outstation was also a forebode for what was to come. Only 2 more runs, Gringo and a final Shadow Thatch 24.Apr.2021. before we closed down again for the longest period of non-hashing in the history of the BH3.

A decision by the Thai government probably made me the longest reigning GM (FL) in the history of the BH3 (except for our founding father who did a 3 year stint.) Ah well ... one for the Hash Historian to note down and for the future generations to remember me by. (Kindly I hope!!!)

We survived Covid – 19!

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Grand Master's Report continues 3

It was not fun at all to have to lead without any runs to officiate. Luckily however ... there was Boob-a-Lube. Our Savior. A big shout out to this old man for organizing, sending out emails and making sure that some of us at least had some exercise happening. They may not have been runs, they may have called them Walks, Shadow Runs, Ramblings, but they were good fun! Thanks, grumpy old man for the effort! This GMFL is grateful for doing this within the guidelines of the Thai Government! Much appreciated.

Then Finally on the 6th of November 2021 we could restart running. Grannies Tits (or Kevin as he prefers to be called) did the honors. A great restart with a great run and an even better OnOnOn.

This was followed by Gringo (setting his 3rd run this year that never ended, if I am not mistaken!) in a familiar area and with a familiar drink stop.

And last week we had Village Idiot setting his farewell run. (Second run this year as well.) Village Idiot is leaving us for China, or so he claims.

We wish him well. He will be missed. His runs will be missed even more.

So, that brings us to the AGM. Which is today (sort of). And this is where I get to thank my committee, without whom I would just be a lone dictator (for life). They gave my reign a semblance of legitimacy.

We survived Covid – 19!

Thanks to:

The JM-s Cod Piece and Lovel Canal. Cod Piece for standing in (way to often, so I heard) when I was not there! Love Canal, for the moral and written support (he left for the Northern Shore half way though).

Hash Cashes. Horny Viking; Anacuntman and Virginia Slim took care of the finances. Thanks guys.

Hon Sec. Checkless my man (assisted by 4x2). Thanks for keeping up the good work, reminding me of important events and even sending out the newsletter during the lock down. Thanks 4x2 for keeping me honest.

Trailmaster. Witches Tit. Who disappeared at some stage to HK (I've been there...). It was not easy finding hares when one is so far away. But you did it. Cheers.

RA – Country Liaison Officer: The Senator. Thanks for your weekly updates on the Gold Price and so much more that was happening in The Big Mango.

Hash Flash Eetan and his Ass Tickler for entertaining us with your brilliant pictures. Hash Sniff Spinning Dwarf, for showing us the way.

Muggers Boob-a-Loob and Dambuster. Controversial position, but executed to perfection. Haberdash Captain Erik, who even found some extra Haberdash Cash to help Hash Piss. Webmaster. No Good Boyo. Thanks keeping the Web Site up to speed and giving us a place of last resort when we got lost.

Hash Piss Coordinator Porkfinder. Without you, Hash Piss would be lost. Hash Cash would probably have spent our money on women of ill repute instead of on beer for the Hashers. Historian "Le Pope". Thanks for keeping the Stats and making sure we remember what is worth remembering.

OnOn to the next GM.

The BH3 Joint Master's Report

Ian Potter
'Codpiece'

Oh nothing much, just the AGM trail

So I said yes Gringo, I'll be a Joint master, seems quite straight forward, just follow the charter.
We are surrounded by chaps who've done it before,
If I need support, they'll help me I'm sure.
There's not much to do as the GM runs the show,
most of the circle is his as we know.
In any event if he needs help we can trust the experienced Love Canal, good old Mike Rust.

But in reality, those cunts didn't show,
so I had no choice but to give it a go.
Running a circle which I'd not done before,
with the BH3 hecklers and shouts from the floor.
At first it was hard trying to think what to say,
a tough lot to please on late Saturday.
But after a while it became kind of fun,
doing the down downs and comment the run

Then Ladyboy returned on one fateful day, he pushed me aside and out of his way.
From then on in - except when he's ill,
I'm just a nothing, a zero, a nil.
Except for the T shirts the food and the party,
be sure each hash man eats full and is hearty.
But my year was fun, if not a plain sail, nothing much left, just the AGM trail.

The Other BH3 Joint Master's Report

Mike Rust
'Love Canal'

I am trying very hard to remember the last run I attended. So long ago it is a bit vague. Apart from the Chiang Dao Outstation in April? Could have been my last haring job in October. What with my loss of taste and smell it is all getting a bit vague.

I thought moving to Phayao would effect my BH3 running experience but as it turns out I haven't missed any "proper" runs at all! It is a lot easier being a JM when one lives 700-odd kms away.

Your AGM shirt alas is not my design owing to a lack of communication but I am sure it will be, as always, OK. As the Interweb meme goes "You only had one job!" I'm not getting as much exercise as I would like as my knee is a bit gammy. In BKK when out receing I got stuck in some of that thick black mud that lines the klongs sometimes and the effort of pulling my foot out without losing my shoe seem to fix my knee. Up north here are almost no klongs so I am denied that treatment.

What with Phayao having no railway or airport I cannot simply jump on a train like Stumbles. Please all stay safe and alive for the next GM's reign. It will be fine, there will be a hare and there will be a run. To paraphrase an Arabian poet "KC may bark but the Hash moves on" On On

After a year of wrangling, Love Canal finally takes over Pink Panther's Phayao franchise. Here he is waiting for his next customer

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Honerary Secretary's Report

Edmund Checkley 'Checkless'

So it was/is/will always be Covid. Some BH3 hashers said 'Oh fk it put my feet up and take it easy' But most got out and about to keep some level of fitness up. It became apparent to your OnSec early on that either the newsletter stops – or keeps going. Then there were the shadow walkers who dutifully followed KC round and round in circles and up KC's butt. After a few accounts of a few brave chaps wandering around aimlessly in rice fields looking for a friendly native to serve them beer, your OnSec decided to ask the BH3 what others were doing. The result was a newsletter that was a bit more inclusive. Your OnSec also decided to spice things up a little with some naughty and hopefully abusive writings. Some may never talk to him again! Tinker will never wear long shorts again to show he has a normal scrotum. KC has admitted openly that he has to be totally in charge and up the front, as if we did not know! Grannies Tits has admitted that he actually likes the name. That Codpiece dreams of reincarnation as a ladies bicycle seat, and our GM of coming back as Captain Eric's bicycle seat. Gringo's girlfriend still waxes lyrical about Gringo's Algae and his delightfully smooth silky scrotum. Roger me keeps up this stern demeanor but secretly he enjoys his penis pearls, especially when running.

But on a more serious note. After Dambuster set a fantastic (virgin?) trail through the mangroves and canals of Samut Sakhon, one group, took 2 hours to find their way out. There was a call for breaking checks to be allowed. Your OnSec asked the great BH3 unwashed if there were any views on going against tradition and breaking checks. A wonderful debate on 'line', and down the bars ensued. Strong opinions for tradition, some supporting and most for compromise. Of course in the tradition of the BH3 the GM did not decide. Common sense was left to prevail and if the trail was difficult, and if a little hint was accidentally left to help those behind in the gathering dark, then so be it!

Your OnSec continued to produce the weekly news letter. Selecting photos, hoping a scribe would do a write up, doing it if nobody did, picking out various BH3 hashers to be abused, and generally trying to do whatever it is an OnSec is supposed to do. I hope someone out there read the newsletters! But it seems not. Looking to pass the role on at the AagPoo. (AGMPU)

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Trailmaster's Report

Benny Hagberg 'Witches Tit'

We live in the time of working from remote and from home. It has been my privilege to pioneer this concept for BH3. To be honest it was not planned to be that way, did we not all believe this little virus would go away soon? But have we not all had to improvise in these covid times? Actually, in practical terms it did make very little difference as dealing with prospective hares via email is sort of normal practice anyway.

After two and a half years in the role as BH3 TM I am happy to retire from the position. Inadvertently this may be a new BH3 record. I have learnt a lot of the collective BH3 mindset over this time and I would like to take the opportunity to present a very scientific assessment of the BH3 attitudes towards setting runs. BH3 members belong to one out of three groups defined as follows.

Always willing to help – as TM know who are in this group but you need to use them sparingly, there will always be occasions when you need someone at short notice and this is the group you will be looking to. You may even get some of them to set more than one run in a year. The simple truth is if you do not have any of these left to approach you will find TM life difficult. Notably, many in this category also have a busy working life.

Go to the dentist – this includes the “Ok then but surely only once a year” crowd. Other characteristics is to wait until the TM contact you and after due consideration responding to the TM. Some in this group has very specific wishes about timing and location (it has to be December as this area is at its driest then).

I have a valid excuse –ranging from the acceptable to the highly suspicious. The excuses include too old or infirm, not up to it, not well, unavailable indefinitely, don't live in BKK (while still attending occasional BH3 runs). Not attending enough BH3 runs to be required to set a run.

I wish the incoming TM the best of luck, I hope these thoughts are of some help.

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Hash Cash Report

Jim Eller
‘Virginia Slim’

On-and-off, up-and-down, the last year has been a real roller-coaster ride, thanks to COVID. After missing ten Saturdays from late March 2020 to mid-June 2020 due to the first wave of COVID, the hash re-started with Run 2230 on the 20th of June. At that time, BH3 had almost no money left, because the old committee supported the Hash Piss financially during the ten-week break. To build up the hash finances, the old committee decided to levy a temporary supplement of 200 Baht per head in addition to the usual run fees, starting at Run 2230. Due to this extra money, the cash balance was already recovering by the AGM at Run 2233 on the 11th of July, and the 200 Baht per head supplement was ended after the AGM.

Committee personnel have also been on a roller-coaster ride. The new GM Ladyboy was held prisoner in Belgium for the first couple of months, finally returning in August 2020. Fortunately, the Hash Cash from the previous committee (Horny Viking) stayed on as Hash Cash for the new committee, so there was a smooth transition of the finances. However, Horny Viking resigned as Hash Cash in early August 2020, so Anacuntman was promoted from Hash Cash Assistant to Hash Cash. In September 2020, Virginia Slim volunteered to be the new Ass (although some would say that he has been an ass for a long time). After that, things ran smoothly until the second wave or third wave of COVID caused the Bangkok hashes to shut down again in late April 2021. Anacuntman ran away to America, the COVID capital of the world, and has not been seen since. Fortunately he left the BH3 cash in the sticky hands of Virginia Slim, who is looking forward to passing the money to the 2021-2022 committee.

BH3 attendance has obviously been slightly lower in 2020-2021 than in previous years due to COVID, but the BH3 cash balance has been pretty healthy since the 2020 AGM. We generally lose a little money most Saturdays (because the beer expenses are usually a little more than the weekly run fees collected), but we get a big cash infusion at the beginning of every quarter when eight or nine members pay quarterly fees, so overall the cash flow has been positive. The GM intends to subsidise the 2021 AGM expenses, and the amount passed to the next committee after this year's AGM should be approximately the same as the money passed from the previous committee after the last AGM. Nota bene: Neither the Hash Cash nor the Hash Cash Ass bought a new car this year.

The Esteemed BH3 RA's Report

Vichai Suphasomboon
'The Senator'

It was my great honour to be appointed RA for BH3 for two consecutive terms. For the two Covid years, most Hashers were tense and quiet especially during the weekly Circles for fear of getting infected while talking and laughing. Social distancing was strictly observed and we talked to each other less. The New Normal makes you paranoid about getting infected. And every day when you wake up you're nervous and want to check yourself thoroughly whether you have got the infection now.

However, gold prices, foreign exchanges and digital currencies have not been affected by the Covid at all. They go up and down 24 hours nonstop and people sell high and buy low. When you make tiny profit, the whole world knows about it but when you make big losses you keep your mouth shut! I look forward to being appointed the third year.

The Essential BH3 Hash Piss Report

Tiradej Sakunwadhna 'Pork Finder'

Tiradej Sakunwadhna 'Pork Finder' when interviewed for the BH3 year book commented that he had fantastic support from the Piss Truck crew; they remained ready and on standby, to start up whenever Covid 19 restrictions were lifted. Continued financial support from BH3 was very helpful. Pork Finder particularly likes the black pig location as he can see wild pigs in their natural surroundings wallowing in the mud; quite often hashers jump into the mud hole with the pig – that is really exciting! But his main joy lay in directing traffic. BH3 hashers are getting old and he is there when they arrive at the run site to position the piss truck and to guide cars into pretty parking layouts. In his spare time he walks down to the end of his soi and stands in the middle of the road to help drivers navigate the difficult intersection and avoid excessive delays and running into each other. This he regards as a civic duty.

The BH3 Webmaster's Report

Lem Morgan 'No Good Boyo'

From the keyboard of the BH3 webmaster. NTR. An empty year from April 2020 until Nov 2021 but the website stays up with little to report apart from a pretty good history of Bangkok and a continuing record of past BH3 publications and photographs. I've sent you a number of jokes hoping that might satisfy your need for input in the Newsletter but none have been published!! Maybe I've lost my sense of humour. But as Trink used to sign off in his much missed weekly Bangkok Post nightlife articles, 'I don't give a hoot'. On On BH3 to a better year.

The BH3 Hon Sec Ass Report

Noah Shepherd
'4 x 2'

When the Ex-GM asked me if I could be the Ass for the year, he told me he had made a first class choice. He was not wrong. It is always a delight to be the Ass of an active committee member. I was only called on once to stand in for the On sec, who has done a fantastic job this last year.

As we move into the 21st Century, it gives me some pleasure that, after several years, most of our members are embracing technology and finally getting used to an electronic newsletter service. A couple of weeks ago, I even heard Mr Snow say that he 'followed Google Maps all the way' to a run. How things are changing.

The BH3 Hash Flash Ass Report

Greg Cable
'Tickler'

As Flash Ass, I assumed the job to be simple and painless, but as I experienced less than 2 months that was not to be the case! The Chief Flash (Eetan) found other amusements on Saturday. This left you with inferior photos at the back of the pack from my camera but a little better for circle and on after pics. It was a long learning process on how to deal with downloading from my S7 phone into Flickr but after a year plus, I think I now have it down! Sorry for the pain that you had to endure during my feeble tenure. on to more competent players for next year! The Tickler.

The BH3 Hash Flash Report

Holden Lagos
'Eatan'

Nothing much to say for my part. My only claim to fame as the hash flash was consolidating the messed up flicker pictures database. Rumours that I have been abusing my Hash committee position, stealing girl friends, and taking them away to glamp out in luxury in the jungle, only to reappear exhausted when the girls deserted me having spent all my money; are all UNTRUE! And I also organized the very successful phantom outstation hash ball on the 1st of April.

The BH3 Hash Sniff Report

Todd Wilke
'Spinning Dwarf'

One of the most important roles on the BH3 Committee, Hash Sniff is responsible for locating the starting point of the afternoon's paper trail and communicating which way to go to the Grand Master or the hounds. It has nothing to do with glowing red-hot butter knives and a used 2L PET bottle with the circular bottom cut off.

The good news for the incoming Sniff is that you will never have to do your pre-run duty because someone else will have done it for you, likely an hour before you arrive at the BH3 A-site. The "usurper" makes a habit of sticking his nose into other people's business, but just be thankful you're not Suffle, and other "old fart" BH3 members, who get that shameless nose stuck up the ass.

Hopefully, in the coming hash year, we will avoid any senseless lockdowns and get back regularly enjoying our favourite Saturday outdoor activity.

Extras...

The following email was received from Pink Panther...

Dear Mugger Sir, To minimize costs for the Hash's funds and my small pocket. A Yeti mug is preferable to me on my 900th run. Any colors are ok for me but black! BTW, my run stat., only #(893+x), is questionable whether there were errors or failure to record my runs properly? Considering the fact that; "after all those 40 years (~2,000 runs) with the Hash or out of those ~2,000 Saturdays which I have been away from my other half. I'll ONLY receive 900th mug! Would you be kind enough to give me a logical answer to her, that those 1,100 Saturday nights, I have been faithful to her. And convince her that no Mia Nois were visited. Awaiting for your advice.

The BH3 Mugger's Report continues...

Reply from Mr. Pope...

I have done a quick check on Pink Panther's runs - and it seems 893 is correct.

I randomly looked up his run totals going back to run 919 in 1995 - the first year when records were digitized (His first run was no 123 in 1979 and his attendance was 88 in 1995), and at first glance there was a progressive increase since then - as you would expect (no major errors). However, I'll dig deeper and give you a more detailed annual run count for him, over the decades. Maybe after Songkran.

Disclaimer - I realize I am also prone to errors, and need this sort of comment to keep me on my toes (joke).

career: 893 runs over 42 years = 21 runs per year post 1995: $893 - 88 = 805$ runs over 26 years = 31 runs per year.

It could be a hiccup in the early records - or maybe he did not run that often - ask his wife !

And from Tinker... Dear Teerachai, No matter what or how you try to explain it, it looks like you are dead meat. You should have used the Hash Alibi – description below.

It was carefully explained in the BH3 40th Run Mag, although 1,100 times is stretching it a bit thin.

Proposal for a new BH3 office, “Hash Alibi” (from the BH3 40th Run Mag)

Last Monday, before the circle, I was idly watching Hash Piss set up the beers and contemplating nothing more serious than whether to grab some more chicken wings before Frank got stuck into them, when Mrs X sidled up and struck up a conversation.

Mrs. X is a lovely intelligent woman, and completely disarming. Therefore, after a few remarks about this and that, and how nice to be back Hashing in Bangkok, in a completely natural way she said, “Did you run last Saturday?”

“Yes.” “and did you see Mr. X there?” (That was von Nivea’s gallop up the right bank of the Ta Jiin and lovely excursion back down, with misdirections that were so obtuse at one point that I was surprised to see anyone there.) Without hesitating, I answered “No”. Then there was a short pause, an “Oh”, and in one of those revelations that dawns a split second after it’s too late, I thought “Oh Damn”. The only thing left to say was the perfunctory “Good to see you back, are you running next Wednesday? I’d better go change out of this shirt.” (And if only I could get a message to the poor bastard before she gets home.)

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Mugger's Report continues some more...

Now it's Saturday again, and Mini remarks "Mr. X says you really dumped him in a pile of shit last week." That doesn't bother me at all. What does is that I was enough of an idiot to get caught off guard. Real men are always prepared. Mel Gibson or Bruce Willis would have casually turned to her and said "Dunno, pretty sure he was. I hadda get back to Bangkok to beat somebody's brains out and left before mosta the pack was in. Hey, good to see you back, whadda you doin' later? Great! I gotta go change outta this shirt, call Demi and tell her I'll be back late." I can't even deal with questions such as "How many beers did you have last night?", let alone the shit a divorce lawyer can throw at you.

So I propose a new Bangkok Hash Office: the "Hash Alibi". Then, if you are contemplating something stupid like telling your wife that you're going running (straight to your latest squeeze on Soi Cowboy), contact Hash Alibi and get something that will stick. Especially if she asks Tinker. In that case, it's an emergency. You immediately contact Hash Alibi.

He calls the next morning, and says "Your husband's office line has been busy since eight. I have his 500 run mug; It was on the restaurant table. He must have forgotten it. Tinker says he wasn't there? Tinker was pissed as a newt, we had to drive him home. How would he know whether Mr. X, Bruce Willis, Zeus, or anyone else was there?"

Of course, this means that everyone has to leave a significant piece of personal Hash paraphenalia with Hash Alibi. Depending upon whether she says "No, I'll tell him, just keep it and give it to him next Saturday" or "Thanks, you can drop it off this afternoon", he may have to produce it. The lost mug ploy will work only a limited number of times, and should be used only when needed to destroy the credibility of a truly witless witness.

A prudent BH3 member will also supply Hash Alibi with a number of personalized alibis, having the ring of truth without causing Hash Alibi to lose all of his self-respect. These can involve mothers-in-law, fish, whatever. Most of these are one-time-only alibis, so Hash Alibi will need a good supply of high-quality throw-away lines (as well as the paraphenalia), and a designated back-up (DBU).

BH3 YEAR BOOK 2020 – 2021 REPORTS

The BH3 Mugger's Report continues even some more...

The choice of back-up is critical. For example, you are the DBU. You knew this two weeks ago, but as time went on without incident, you assume that Mr. Y got away with it. Then the phone rings at 10 pm, and it's Mr. Y. "Hi, this is Y. How's it goin'?" "Great. How're you? What's up?" "Oh not much -- lissen, remember that run a couple of weeks ago?" (Suddenly you're alert.) "Yeah?" "Well, I've lost a towel, and I think it was there. You notice did I lend it to anyone?" (Now you're sure the towel wasn't lost and equally sure his wife is listening in on the extension.)

"Lemme think. No, I don't think so. Wait -- I kinda recall it was raining hard, and Daeng got wet while she was setting up the piss. Didn't she borrow it from you?" (This could explain almost anything, like lipstick smears, long black hairs, and other tell-tale stains.) "Yessss!! That's it! Hey, thanks pal. OK, Gotta go. See you next Saturday." He hangs up, you smile, pour yourself another brew, look in the mirror and see Bruce Willis.

The choice of Hash Alibi is also critical. Right away, it can't be an expat. Any expat worth hashing with lost his credibility years ago. I was thinking of Suffle. He even brings his family on outstations. At the time this wasn't appreciated as it made the rest of us, especially Brain Health, look really bad.

But it also gave Suffle untold points. Further, he is our best bullshitter, even better than Squall. He can easily explain why your balls were green when you came back from the Pattaya outstation. Hash Alibi's Ass would be Noreiga. For some reason, which I will never understand, women actually trust him.

The BH3 Shadow Walk Report

KC Marchment 'Boob a Loob'

Your OnSec interviewed Boob a Loob as he was too shy to write up his Covid efforts himself. We had been through 2020 relatively intact but the Covid 19 virus would not go away, only mutating to become more infectious in 2021. Restrictions on the numbers that could gather meant the BH3 stopped running for 6 and a half months. A bloody long time! How do we cope!

KC stepped forward and applied the 'shadow run' model used during outstation runs. He set up 'Shadow Walks' to replace the suspended BH3 runs. As we all know KC remembers every run on every Hash for the last many years. So by restricting the numbers to comply with regulations he was able to arrange and lead BH3 hashers out into the countryside every Saturday, without fail! Others took over the lead sometimes. As restrictions eased he was able to increase the numbers and include beer stops. There were other groups out running and walking, including the other hashes. These groups and KC kept the hash alive!

Boob a Loob has survived many injuries over the years; jumping out of aeroplanes, falling over bicycles, breaking ribs, breaking shoulders, breaking cockixes, teeth falling out, having his tongue bitten by dogs, and numerous minor bits falling off. Some heard that he had not informed Gung Pet his wife on the extent of the damage before wedlock, with consequent conjugal impairment. The walkers found it easy to know that KC is coming: First you hear a peculiar rattling noise approaching. Then you hear a muttering and a voice saying, "you all missed a loop". Then out of the gloom he will appear. The explanation for the strange rattling noise you hear is that over the 400 Km walk he does each month during Covid lockdown; all the pins, bolts and straps that keep his body together come loose. Now runs have started again watch with incredulity as KC heads off on a run; first tilting to the right as one leg gives in, a quick fix, and then a lurch to the left as his rib cage collapses. The teeth still rattle but he seems happy enough. Plenty of Heineken always puts him right – a real trooper!

Thank you KC 'Boob a Loob' for stepping forward and keeping the spirit of the BH3 alive.

The BH3 Historian's Report

Brian Pope
'Le Pope'

Hash Historian Gripe Report

At the end of Stumble's reign in 1999, prompted by the casual way records were kept, I appointed myself to a new post - Hash Historian. So for the last twenty years I have been keeping records. I keep all hard copy of hash stuff in several plastic boxes in Sam Ngao. I am always pleased to receive any hash records. Today all records are electronic, but there is a lot of hash stuff from the first three decades of BH3 out there. Don't throw them out ! There are three Golden Rules that I would like to see introduced by the Hash:

- 1 NOBODY should be allowed to join the Hash on their first run. We have many visitors who are persuaded/coerced to join on their first run - and we never see them again. It makes being a BH3 member a bit of a joke. And my membership records a headache. "I am a member, I joined last time I ran (5 years ago)" Maybe on their third run.
- 2 ALL New Boots must fill out a form. That way we get their proper name and contact details. It should not be Hash Cash's responsibility to record their names. Deciphering cursive writing the next day leads to errors. See below, showing how they did it twenty years ago
- 3 All records should be kept in alphabetical order of their first names. Not their hash names.

Sadly this year is the first year that I don't appear on the Attendance Records. I almost made the Pranburi Outstation (Harriettes 2000) - but, going up the the hotel lift to our room, my wife received a phonecall telling her that an aunt had just died. So early next morning we returned to Bangkok.
